Amtrak Meals & Dining Options:

- Some trains have Dining Cars with complete sit-down meal service. In other trains, Lounge, Dinette, and Café Cars provide more informal food service. And in some shorter-distance trains, no meal service is provided. Please check the train details in Euronet for to know what is available on board.

Dining Car

- Most of Amtrak's long-distance trains include a full-service Dining Car, which serves hot meals prepared onboard for breakfast, lunch and dinner.
- All meals for passengers with sleeping accommodations are included in the price of their train ticket.
- Coach class passengers may dine for an additional charge.
- Hours of operation of food service cars vary depending on train operation.
- Lunch reservations are taken from 11:30 am - 3 pm; dinner reservations are taken from 4 pm - 9 pm.
- Food and beverages purchased in Dining Cars can only be consumed in those cars.
- Passengers are asked to make reservations for lunch and dinner. Reservations are taken in 15 minute increments, which allows for a more pleasant dining experience, assures passengers of receiving quality service from Amtrak staff and prevents the Dining Cars from becoming overcrowded during peak meal times.
- After boarding, an Amtrak staff member will go through the train asking passengers to select a preferred time for dining.

Lounge, Dinette and Café Cars

- For more informal dining, Lounge, Dinette and Café Cars offer sandwiches, snacks and beverages from early morning to late evening.
 - Hours of operation of food-service cars vary depending on train operation.
 - Lounge and Café Cars also provide comfortable, casual seating for sightseeing and socialising and have tables for writing or playing cards and other games.
 - Ready-to-go tray meals are available on many trains.
 - Food and beverages purchased in Lounge Cars can only be consumed in those cars.
 - If travellers need assistance, staff will provide meals and beverage service to your seat.
 - On some long distance trains, people using wheelchairs may transfer to and from the Lounge Car at appropriate station stops. Travellers can ask onboard service attendant to make the necessary arrangements.
